6. AFFILIATED CLUBS

6.1 Retained Earnings

At the end of each financial year, each affiliated club referred to in clause 1.5 retains their own accumulated earnings. This encourages them to budget well and build up reserves and avoids the mentality of "use it or lose it". There is an overriding provision, however, that any large expenditure (and an amount of over $10,000.00 is considered a large expenditure) must still be controlled and approved by the committee. Retained earnings cannot be used to offset a loss. If an affiliated club presents a deficit, at the January committee meeting it will have to present to the committee its plan to return to break even or a profit.

6.2 Guidelines for the usage of retained earnings

- (a) Each of the affiliated clubs referred to in clause 1.5 should generally be able to earmark its retained earnings for a suitable specific purpose

- (b) A veto of expenditure by an affiliated club can only be made by the committee if the proposal is for something regarded as outside the spirit of how community funds should be spent for the betterment of the sport concerned in which the affiliated club is involved in.

6.3 Positive or Negative financial position

- (a) If an affiliated club referred to in clause 1.5 is in a positive cash position, any planned expenditure of retained earnings should be accompanied by a brief explanation (what, why, who, how much) in the affiliated club's annual budget submitted to the committee each year in September, prior to the new financial year. If the need for extra expenditure arises later in the period, or if plans change, the affiliated club is to notify the Treasurer before committing to the activity, outlining the same information (what, why, who, how much) so that the budget and records can be updated. Such an item will only need approval by office-bearers the office-bearers have concerns it is outside the spirit of these guidelines on expenditure.
- (b) The actual spending will be recorded in Club's accounting system for financial and auditing purposes as a current-year expense. The Treasurer will keep a separate spreadsheet tracking current-year spend against prior-year retained earnings and make an annual adjustment to give a true picture of the affiliated club's current-year profit.
- (c) If an affiliated club finds itself unexpectedly facing a financial loss in a financial year, its retained earnings may be budgeted to offset that loss without the approval of the committee. Similarly, an affiliated Club cannot adopt an annual budget that proposes a loss without the approval of the committee. In either situation, the affiliated club would be asked to review its budget and look first to other revenue sources (registration fees, fund-raising, sponsorship etc) to reverse the situation.

6.4 Guidelines for the expenditure of retained earnings

Guidelines for the expenditure of retained earnings for affiliated clubs referred to in clause 1.5 include, but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Keeping within the spirit of how community funds should be spent for the betterment of the sport supported by the affiliated club;
- (b) Adding value to the player experience (more / better coaching, equipment etc);
- (c) Striving for the addition of common assets that can be retained by the affiliated club;
- (d) Minimising fee increases rather than reducing fees per se as the latter creates ongoing expectations that the offer can be repeated;
- (e) Being aware of and examining potential conflicts of interest;
- (f) Being wary of paying individuals large sums to provide services; and
- (g) Accounting for the proposed expenditure in the affiliated club's annual budget.

6.5 Items of expenditure which require approval by the Office-bearers

As soon as practically possible after each annual general meeting, the office-bearers for the affiliated clubs referred to in clause 1.5 shall attend to annual compliance tasks, including but not limited to:

- (a) Signatory authority changes at the Club's bank;

- (b) The procedures to be adopted by each of the affiliated clubs referred to clause 1.5 for committee meetings, notice of committee meetings, quorum, presiding committee member, voting, acts valid despite vacancies or defects and Transaction of business outside meetings or by telephone or other means is as set out in clauses 3.9 to 3.15.
